A selection of key journals by subject:

The National Children's Bureau (NCB) library has an extensive multi-disciplinary collection of journals covering issues related to children and young people. This list offers a selection of key journals by subject. This list is a guide only, not a complete list of all the journal titles available from the library. Journals listed under a subject heading often include material about other subject areas. Library users can undertake their own literature searches across the entire journal collection by using ChildData, the NCB library catalogue.
